

Press Release dated September 9, 2014:

The new Michael Flatley show - Lord of the Dance – Dangerous Games

Directed and choreographed by Michael Flatley.

The spectacular new staging of the traditional masterpiece, which premiered at the Palladium in London on September 3, sets off for a world tour now.

With all the visceral precision and thrills of the original, Lord Of The Dance: Dangerous Games features new staging including Holo-Gauze™ screen technology displaying holographic-effect projections, new costumes and new choreography.

Starring James Keegan, Morgan Comer and Mathew Smith as the Lords Of The Dance alongside 40 of the world's most outstanding young performers, directed and choreographed by Michael Flatley, with new music by composer Gerard Fahy, this latest iteration combines the best of tradition with all the excitement of new music and dance.

"I'm blown away by the remarkable talent and abilities of the great cast we've gathered."
says Flatley.

The Lord Of The Dance story emerges from the dreams of the Little Spirit. It is a classic tale of good versus evil. In the Little Spirit's dreams the Lord Of The Dance represents all things good in the world - but he must fight against evil in the form of The Dark Lord and his army of Dark Disciples. Morrighan the Seductress comes between The Lord and his true love Saoirse, while Erin The Goddess puts into song the words that dances convey.

These are Dangerous Games!

The word tour launches at Wembley Arena, where Michael Flatley broke all selling records, to continue in Belgium, Israel, Scandinavia, Ireland and South Africa to return to Europe in 2015. Lord of the Dance Dangerous Games will come to the Czech Republic in autumn 2015.
